Children's Fellowship & A Place

Mark McDonald, Chalmers Assistant Organist and a music student at Queen's University, will lead the children of Chalmers in music each Sunday morning before worship service begins. Singing will start at 10 a.m. upstairs in Sunday school.

Sunday, January 20th – A Family Winter Welcome. A late-afternoon dinner for children, youth, and their families. Starting at 4 p.m.

Watch for more details in the weeks ahead.

Faith and Life: Conversations on the Way

This program for young people of Chalmers will involve exploring, affirming and claiming faith in a journey that is both individual and part of a group. The program may, or may not, lead a participant to choose confirmation, the rite of the church which signifies full membership in the congregation and The United Church of Canada. The program consists of participation in the Sunday morning group, A Place, and several addition sessions led by Rev. Steven Chambers. For more information, please see Steven after the service today.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

The historical crucifixion of Jesus

Rev. Dr Stanford Lucyk invites you to join in a 4-week pre-Lenten Study on the crucifixion of Jesus and various theological interpretations of it.

Some of the theologians to be examined are J. Denny Weaver,
Professor of Religion at Bluffton University and

Marit Trelstad of Pacific Lutheran University

The Study will include listening to Benjamin Britten's Canticle II, 'Abraham and Isaac'.

The study will be at 7:30 on Wednesday evenings,
From January 16th to February 6.

Please pre-register through the church office.

The same program will be offered on Thursday evenings at St. George's Cathedral and people may move back and forth.
